

I feel that this petition is a good compromise for the Pro-Code, and the No-Code group. It gives Tech+ some limited introduction to the HF bands without having to learn the code, but for full privileges they must pass the code exam. It is a sensible proposal that I think most Amateur Radio Operators could agree with.